Election Clerk Election on Disclosure

An appointed Election Clerk may choose whether or not to allow public access to the information in the custody of the City relating to the Election Clerk's home address, home telephone number, cellular and pager numbers (if not paid for by City), emergency contact information, personal email address, and information that reveals whether the person has family members.

Each Election Clerk shall state his/her choice in writing to the City Secretary's Office. If an Election Clerk elects not to allow public access to this information, the information is protected by Sections 552.024 and 552.117 of the Public Information Act and rulings of the Texas Attorney General. If an Election Clerk fails to report his/her choice, the information may be subject to public access.

If during the course of their term an Election Clerk wishes to close or open public access to the information, the individual may request in writing to the City Secretary's Office to close or open access as the case may be. An Election Clerk may request to close or open public access to the information by submitting a written request to the City Secretary's Office. Only the City Secretary's Office is allowed to disclose the information listed above.

(Please strike through any information that you do not wish to be made accessible to the public)
