North Harris County Regional Water Authority Charges

The North Harris County Regional Water Authority (NHCRWA) was created by the Texas Legislature in 1999 to convert Northwest Harris County from groundwater to surface water. Subject to the NHCRWA, the City of Tomball is mandated to collect the NHCRWA fee on all water bills, based on the rates set by the NHCRWA. The rate applies to all water customers within the Authority's boundaries, including Tomball. The City remits this fee to the NHCRWA. You can find the current rate and information about the NHCRWA at nhcrwa.com.
